Union University Wins Again.

Lincoln University Game From Lincoln University by 11 to 0 Score.

In an erratic game yesterday afternoon, Virginia Union University defeated Lincoln University for the second time this season by the score of 11 to 0. The contest, which was played at the Lincoln University grounds, was a ball game, abundant in tight places, exciting, playing hard and his and his, costly errors, hard hits and amusing situations. Lincoln put in the first half of the game, but failed miserably in allowing the goods. Union played its usual hard game for the Pennsylvanians, while Goss did the most opportune hitting. For Union, Nash played brilliant ball, while Boston, Hall and Beecher Taylor each made sensational catches. Union won the game by punching hits in the second, third, fifth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth innings. Lincoln looked dangerous at times, and, trying hard to make a successful rally in the eighth, ninth and tenth.

The Lincoln University, to-day, and Morgan College, of Baltimore, to-morrow, ending up with Chesney Institute on Saturday.

ECZEMA ITCHED
FOR 20 YEARS—
RESINOL CURED

All Over Face, Arms and Hands. Would Walk the Floor All Night.

December 8, 1913: "I had eczema for twenty years. It started on me when I was but thirteen years old, and am now thirty-four, and have suffered all these years. It started with small pimples all over my face, arms and hands. My hands would swell up so that I could not shut them, and I was almost blind. It would itch, then burn, and I had to keep the affected parts wrapped up so that I would not scratch them. I couldn't sleep at all—just walked the floor a whole night.

"I have tried many different remedies and spent a large sum of money, but had no relief. Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment were recommended to me. They gave me great relief after the third application, and after using four jars of Resinol Ointment and three cakes of Resinol Soap, I am completely cured." (Signed) Mrs. H. E. Fleager, Box 13, Dauphin, Pa.

Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap quickly heal skin eruptions, clear away pimples and blackheads, and form the most valuable household treatment for sores, burns, boils, piles, etc. For trial size, free, write to Resinol, Dept. 10-R, Baltimore, Md. Sold by all druggists. Prescribed by doctors for nineteen years.—Adv.

BATTING RALLY WINS GAME.

Catholic University Defeats University of North Carolina in Fifth Inning.

Washington, April 28.—A batting rally in the fifth inning gave Catholic University a hard-earned 3 to 1 victory over North Carolina today on the Brookland diamond, and decided a clever pitching duel between Travers and Aycock in favor of the former.

In this session singles by Smith, Travers, Donnelly and White, mixed in with a put out and an error, sent the home players to the plate. Carolina had gotten its run in the first round on a pass to K. Bailey, Harrison hit and one of 4 to 136. Woodall, for the visitors, gave a noteworthy exhibition of catching, having three of the home players' strikes earned, in staying off attempted steals. Donnelly, Smith, Klingens and Zedery did the best work for the locals.

Lexington, Va., April 28.—University of Georgia won from Virginia Military Institute this afternoon, 4 to 2. Hitchcock, with almost perfect control, pulled himself out of several bad holes. The cadets had thirteen stranded on the bases, and on five occasions a hit with two on far corners would have sewed up the game. Georgia scored two on errors, a sacrifice and a hit in the sixth, and one on a hit and error in the seventh. The cadets scored on a single and double in the first and four passes in the seventh.

ORANGE AND BLUE LEAVES ON LONG NORTHERN TRIP

Baseball Squad From University to Tackle Princeton, Harvard and Brown.

Charlottesville, Va., April 25.—The following members of the Virginia baseball squad left at 9 o'clock to-morrow for Princeton, N. J., to begin on the team's annual Northern trip: Gammon, James, Calloway and Flannagan, pitchers; Green and Frye, catchers; Word, first base; Paschall, second base; Captain Scott, shortstop; Stickley, third base; White, left field; Guy, centre field; Phillips, right field; Smith, infielder.

The first contest will be with Princeton to-morrow. The team is anxious to win this game, as the Tigers defeat the Orange and Blue on Lambert Field on the 10th. The second game will be with Harvard, and interest is kept here in the outcome, as the Cambridge nine has not been met in several years. The third contest will be with Brown, at Providence, and the final game with Yale, at New Haven, on Saturday.

Virginia has already won the series from Yale, having decisively beaten Old Eli in Norfolk and in Charlottesville. Special effort will be made to make a three straight from the Bulldog outfit, so as to end the season with a victory.

After the Yale game, the Virginia team will immediately return to New York City, where the team will break training and the members will attend the annual banquet given by the New York Alumni Association of the University of Virginia in honor of the baseball team.

The record made so far by the Virginia team shows that it is one of the strongest college nines in the country. The team has played thirteen games, winning ten, losing three, and tying one. The longest game has been ten innings, the longest hit has been a home run, and the longest game has been a three-game series with the University of North Carolina.

CHAMPION GREEK WRESTLER
TO MEET IRISH WHIRLWIND

Kervaras, the giant Greek wrestler, who is also known as the Greek Lion, will have a busy evening at the Academy next Monday night, when he is booked to meet a sturdy Irish grappler named Donnelly. Donnelly is also called the "Irish Whirlwind," and he sure looks the part. When the Irish champion gets mad there is usually something doing, and judging from his match here last Saturday night, Kervaras' style of wrestling will suit the Irish lad to a "T."

As to weight, the Greek grappler will have the edge on the Irish champion. Donnelly, on the other hand, is possessed of more science than the Greek. Both Kervaras and Donnelly are anxious to secure a match with Dr. Roller, and the winner will have an opportunity to meet the great physician wrestler.

Kervaras, who is already in good condition, is daily going through a course of strenuous training so as to be in the best possible condition when he tackles Donnelly.

Donnelly's manager reports his man in good shape, due to having had some hard matches in Chicago recently. The next bout of tracing a good deal of attention, and to the fans, who like plenty of action, the bout should prove to be a hummer.

After the Yale game, the Virginia team will immediately return to New York City, where the team will break training and the members will attend the annual banquet given by the New York Alumni Association of the University of Virginia in honor of the baseball team.

The record made so far by the Virginia team shows that it is one of the strongest college nines in the country. The team has played thirteen games, winning ten, losing three, and tying one.
